DAVID WOODRUFF AND
CLARISSA VAN WAGONER
PROVOST

Born January 29, 1850, at Newark, New Jersey, son of Luke and Julia Ann Wheeler Provost. Married Clarissa Van Wagoner October 22, 1876 by Bishop David Van Wagoner, brother of the bride. Died June 13, 1933, Midway.

Clarissa Van Wagoner Provost, born December 22, 1858, Provo, Utah. Daughter of John Halmah Van Wagoner and Clarissa Tappen. Died March 16, 1940, Midway.

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

David Woodruff Provost, second son in his family, truly added his strength to the pioneers of Midway and Wasatch County. He lived with and helped support his widowed mother and her family until he married.

He was a Black Hawk War veteran. He was captain of the Ira N. Jacobs Company in Utah Militia Infantry. He was awarded the Medal of Honor presented by the State of Utah. "Uncle Dave" carried the first tape in the original survey of Midway. He also held the first plow for the first irrigation ditch made in Midway.

He played the snare drums in the Martial Band for years.

He and his brother, Luke, owned their own brick kiln and made brick which they sold to build many homes in Wasatch County. He was a brick layer, good carpenter, shoemaker, barber, butcher, wood carver and farmer. He did lots of step dancing for public entertainment.

With the help of his good wife, Clara, they raised a big family. Many sad experiences came into their home, such as sudden death and much sickness. Times were hard for them, but in spite of this, their home was open to the public at all hours. Many friends both young and old came for musical entertainment and good visiting. They raised three children of their son, Luke, whose wife had died leaving the tiny tots to their care.

Aunt Clara was a spotless housekeeper and a good cook. She was pleasant to be with, always having faith in the Lord and the thought that everything would work out all right.

Children of David and Clarissa were:
Mrs. Fletcher (Clarissa Florence) Arthur
David William
Luke Alma, married Mary Tryisha Vail
George Ammon
Mary Malinda, died in early youth

FREDRICK REMUND AND ANNE ELIZABETH OTT REMUND

Fredrick Remund, son of Christian Remund and Margaretha Hofman Remund.

Born March 30, 1853, Bumpliz, Bern, Switzerland. Married Anne Elizabeth Ott, January 24, 1876, in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City. Died December 27, 1935, in Salt Lake City.

Anne Elizabeth Ott, daughter of Henrick Ott and Elizabeth Winkler. Born in Zell Zurich, Switzerland. Died July 5, 1909.

Fredrick Remund was the 10th child of eleven children born to his parents, Christian Remund and Margaretha Hofman. They lived on a seven-acre tract of land at Bumpliz, Bern, Switzerland. Fred's father was a building contractor of modest means. Their home was small but beautifully landscaped, and well kept. The father and mother died within six months of each other when Fred was fifteen years of age. After his father's death his older brother sent him to learn the shoemaker's trade.

While working at this trade Fredrick became acquainted with John Zwahlen who was a convert to the LDS Church. He invited Fredrick to go to some of the meetings being held by the missionaries, he was converted and baptized October 20, 1874. He started saving his money to pay the passage to America. It didn't take too long for in 1875 he had saved enough to pay his own way and that of his friend John.

They went first to Richfield where a number of German speaking people had settled. Here Fredrick met and married Anne Elizabeth Ott, who had come from Zell Zurich, Switzerland, with her widowed mother and three sisters about the same time he had come. Fredrick Remund and his friend John Zwahlen were both married the same day in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City.

He lived the United Order in Richfield for about nine years. Three of his children were born there, Fred Jr., Matilda, and Albert. In about 1882 Fredrick Remund moved to Midway. He bought a home in Midway across the street from Ulrich Probst. Late in about 1885 he filed on 80 acres in what is now the Dutch Field, his deed to that parcel of land was signed by President Benjamin Harrison in 1890.

He also received his citizenship papers on December 19, 1881.

They built the rock house on what is now called the Remund Homestead, in 1899 and 1900.

Fredrick Remund and Anne Elizabeth Ott had 10 children, six boys and four girls, all born in Midway except the three older ones. In 1892 when Annie was only six months old Fredrick was called on a mission to Switzerland, he was gone until April of 1895. On his return home from his mission he was chosen leader of the Swiss Band, this position he held for many years.

Anne Elizabeth Ott Remund died July 5, 1909 of cancer, in a Provo Hospital. She lived a hard life, and was a true pioneer. Her father died while she was very young and her mother became a convert to the Church and wanted to bring her four daughters to America. She was a seamstress, but to help get the money needed the girls made baby shoes from thread woven by their mother.

Besides rearing 10 children, when her daughter-in-law died leaving an infant, she took him and nursed and tended him as her own.

The children and other family members of Fredrick and Anne are as follows:

Fredrick Jr., (Fred), who married Alice Sulser in 1898. To this union twins were born, two boys, Karl and Parley. The mother's strength was gone, she never recovered from the birth of her boys and she died when Karl was about five weeks old. After Alice died Fred Jr. filled an honorable mission to Germany. In 1905 he was married to Elfreda Jaspersen and to this union six children were born: Ralph, who married Anna Bates and lives in California; Clive married Lucile

Johansen, he also lives in California; Grace married John Owen who is presently the superintendent of schools in Kamas, Utah; George married Cynthia Schear; Carol married Loyd Schlappi, and Grant married Iva Don Shumway.

Albert Remund married Anna Mina Madsen, daughter of Neils Peter Madsen and Marie W. Cathrine Krause of Mt. Pleasant. They had six children. Albert died August 31, 1955, of a heart attack. He was living in Salt Lake City at the time. Up until the time of his marriage he helped at home on the farm.

Matilda married first John Haney of Midway. They had a pair of twins who died and then one girl Verda, who was born a few months after her father was killed in a snow slide in Park City. A few months later Matilda married Emil Hafen of Mt. Pleasant. Four children were born of this union. Orval, the oldest, was in an accident at the mines in Price, in about 1926 and has been a cripple ever since. Matilda died March 18, 1954.

Henry Arnold Remund went to Duchesne County as a very young man, and helped settle that country. He had 12 miles of ditch to dig. He married Emma Marsing of Duchesne and they had four children. The oldest girl, Della, is the wife of Orin Turnbow and lives in Midway. Henry died May 27, 1924 of tick fever caused by a tick bite received while cleaning the ditch.

William (Bill) was never married. He died at the age of 60, October 12, 1945, in Park City.

Joseph Remund married Frances Chandler, a school teacher from Old Mexico. He lives in Salt Lake City. They have three children. Joe served on a mission to Germany from June 1911 to April 1914. He has been a dairy farmer most of his life.

Charles Remund married first Phoebe Orgil. Of this union there were four girls born. Phoebe died December 15, 1930. Charles later married Lottie Corlen Elliot. To this union two children were born. Charles died August 21, 1951.

Annie Remund married William Madsen. She is living in Mt. Pleasant and has one son. Her husband died in 1954.

Mary Remund married Tom Clark. He died April 27, 1950. Mary has one son.

Lydia Remund married Mark Kennison to which union one daughter was born. Lydia later married Lester Westburg. They live in Salt Lake City.

Fredrick Remund Sr., has 34 living grandchildren, 95 great grandchildren and 32 great great grandchildren and four living children.

SUSAN LUVERNIA ROBEY ROSS
Susan Luvernla Robey Ross came to Utah in 1852 with her parents in the David Woods company, settling first in Provo. She came to Provo Valley (Heber Valley) the same year her parents came, in 1859, but lived in Heber.
BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS
When her third child was born she was critically ill and died because of inexperienced medical assistance. The winter had been an exceptionally severe one, and at the time of her death, in April, the snow was so deep it took her father and brother nearly a whole day to reach Heber, a distance of about four miles. Her mother had been with her during her illness and had done everything in her power to save her life. She was an exceptionally sweet woman and was loved by all who knew her. She was always kind and cheerful, fond of singing, and her home was a gathering place of many young people.
After her death her mother took the three children and reared them to womanhood, caring for them as though they were her own. She died as many of the early pioneer saints, for the cause of humanity, and the building of a commonwealth from which future generations might dwell in peace and comfort. She is buried at Heber City, Utah.

James Dock Shanks was born November 29, 1833, at Paisley, Renfrewshire, Scotland. He came to Utah in September, 1853, crossing the plains with the Jacob Gates company, and settling in Salt Lake City. About the first job he obtained was helping build the wall around the temple block.

He was married December 21, 1855, to Isabella Muir, daughter of James and Mary Murray Muir, pioneers of 1853. Isabella was born August 15, 1837. Their children were Mary E. (Mrs. Gustave Waldberg), Isabella, James M., William, Marian (Mrs. William Doyle), Elizabeth (Mrs. William Fisher), John M., Margaret (Mrs. McEwan), Archibald (married to Lilly Duke), and George A.

On March 10, 1875, he married Eva Erickson at Salt Lake City. She was the daughter of Eric Erickson and Fredericka Carlsson of Upland, Sweden, who came to Utah by railroad. Their children were Catrina, Amelia, Joseph, Louise, Josephine, Hyrum, Evelyn and Fredericka.

In 1899 he married Carline Homan at Salt Lake City. She was an immigrant from Germany. They had no family.

Anyone who has the sweet memory of being awakened by the music of the martial band on state occasions and celebrations will remember Jimmy Shanks as the leader and fife player of the group. He also took part in the Blackhawk War and was a member of the Thomas Todd Infantry Company. He was for many years the only tailor in our community.

He built three homes in Heber City. The grounds of each home was landscaped and beautified with flowers and shrubbery. He was really what is called today a "green thumb." He experimented with flowers, trees and shrubs to discover the best suited to our climate.

When stake conference convened at the Stake House and when the Sacrament meeting for Heber was held Sunday afternoons there, it was with pride and pleasure he carried beautiful stately bouquets to place on either side of the pulpit, on the three tiers of the rostrum. These bouquets were made with care and exactness, starting with a row of pansies and building up with flox and sweet william that were interspersed with blades of beautiful ribbon grass. They seemed to fit in with the stately stand and building.

In later years he and his good wife, Carrie, continued taking flowers to beautify the Third Ward chapel that had recently been built and of which he was very proud. He was a sincere Latter-day Saint, a High Priest of this stake, a home missionary and at one time superintendent of the Sunday School at Riverdale.

JOSEPH M. SMITH

Joseph M. Smith, son of Ephraim and Nancy Elizabeth Smith, was born September 22, 1861, and died July 28, 1945. He married Isabell Lindsay on December 26, 1881. She was the daughter of William and Christine Howie Lindsay and was born December 31, 1860, in Thorenton Rowe, Ayrshire, Scotland. She died March 15, 1948, in Heber City.

The following children were born to this couple: Elizabeth, Wallas, Joseph Lon, Oron J., Douglas, James L., George Dewy, Ephraim, Glenn, Roy and Hope.

Their temple work has been done. Joseph and Isabell lived in Heber most of their lives, except for six years spent in McHenry Canyon, near Park City. Joe was a good farmer and captured prizes at state and county fairs for his potatoes.

Isabell was a very humble woman. She was a good singer and sang in choirs. She was set apart by Thomas Rasband as a teacher in the first Primary in Heber City. Her teachers in school were Sam Wing and William Buys. They had only one arithmetic book for all the grades. The musicians for entertainment were Ephraim Smith, Henry Walker and Jim Wheeler. p484

ELI SWAIN AND ADA M. MORTENSEN

Eli Swain, son of Robert Henry and Sophia Johnson Swain, was born July 5, 1884, in Salt Lake City. He moved to Buysville (Daniel) in 1888. He married Ada Marett Mortensen on July 7, 1911, in the Salt Lake Temple.

They lived at Bluebell, Duchesne County, where Ada taught school for awhile. They lived on a farm and raised sheep and cattle until November, 1916, when they moved to Phoenix, Arizona, and went into the mercantile business. He has always tried to help anyone in need and never turned anyone away from his door, always feeding them if asked and fitting them out with clean clothes even if he needed them himself. Always active in the Church, he was president of the choir at Phoenix 10 years, and at present both he and his wife are ordinance workers in the temple. He is organist for the High Priests, always being a lover of music.

HOW BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

born in Ertmark, Sweden, on November 30, 1855, the ninth child of Jonas and Christena Bringleston Johnson. Robert died on November 18, 1895, at Buysville. Sophia died October 6, 1917, at Daniel.

Robert Henry Swain grew to be a tall man, measuring well over six feet. Because of this he was chosen to be a bodyguard to Queen Victoria.

He joined the LDS Church at the age of 21, and loved it to the extent that, when his first wife could not see fit to join, he left her and their two children and sailed on the ship "Belle Wood" in 1865, working as a cabin boy for his passage. Robert came straight to Salt Lake, settling in the Eleventh Ward.

He was a talented musician and this gift was shared with others throughout his lifetime. He sang and led the choir and played the violin, clarinet and piano. He was a stone cutter by trade, and labored 10 years on the Salt Lake Temple. He also was a carpenter, blacksmith, harness maker, and made his children's shoes.

He married Maria Jensen, and they gave freely of what they had to help other saints to come to Utah. One of these was Julia Anna Johnson, whom he later married. They sent money for her sister Sophia to come also, and in due course he married her in the Salt Lake Endowment House in 1878. To these three wives 20 children were born.

Because of the Manifesto, Robert was forced to leave Salt Lake and, with his two wives and families, moved to Heber Valley in late April, 1888. Sophia was established in Buysville and Julia in Heber. Here he continued his trade, building many of the fine homes in the valley. He also built the Heber Hospital.

His fourth wife, Sophia Johnson, was born in Ertmark, Sweden, on November 30, 1855, the ninth child of Jonas and Christena Bringleston Johnson. Her father was baptized in the Church in May, 1865, and in November, 1866, she, her mother and two sisters joined the Church. They were converts of Charles P. Carlen.

She and Robert became the parents of eight children, five of whom were born in Salt Lake and three in Buysville. They are: Ephraim, Agnes Sophia, Eli, Joseph F., Arthur, Walter Edward, Maude Christena, and Mary Blanche.

Robert died in November, 1895, of an occupational disease. The night of his burial snow was eight inches deep. Sophia was left with eight little children, from nine months to sixteen years of age, to support and forty acres of land to care for. Times were hard and money scarce, but she bore these hardships with dignity and devotion. She worked in the fields with her boys, often irrigating barefoot in icy water because she had no boots. She did washings for 50 cents each, which she rubbed on the board.

Always cheerful, regardless of her trials, she was true to her principles, God, her family and her friends; was never cross, always working unmindful of her own hardships. She strove constantly for her family. She knew they had faults, but never became angry or reminded the children of them. Her advice to them was, "Never do anything or go any place you couldn't take your mother with you and feel proud of your actions."

In the evening she would sit in a chair and rock back and forth, looking into space. Her thoughts must have been frightening—eight little ragged and half-starved children playing on the floor.

She was just what the Lord had in mind when He placed woman on earth and told her to multiply and replenish the earth.

Julianna Johnson, who was born June 11, 1849, at Ertmark, Dahlsland (County), Sweden, married Robert Henry Swain about 1873. She was the daughter of Jonas and Christena Bringleston Johnson.

Their children were: Alma, Abner, Enoch, Julianna, Samuel, Hyrum, Heber C. and Emanuel.

The boys were all brick makers and built with brick and were carpenters. They were all good musicians.
